Fall Saturday School Starts Again

The Foundation is moving to our new location. If you can, please send a donation to offset the moving expenses.

Semi-back to normal

This is going to be an unusual newsletter because it is a 3 in 1 newsletter. It is for Fall 2020, Spring 2021, and Summer 2021. So, get ready to read carefully or you may get confused and since I am writing it and I stay confused most of the time it probably will be confusing. Covid 19 has confused life in general and the Dyslexia Foundation in particular. For most of 2020 the Foundation had no home because the Bishop of the Episcopal Church said that All Saints could not have anyone in

Summer Review Update

For years our former director, Claire Worthington, would say, "God loves the Dyslexia Foundation". I have thought of Claire often, especially this semester. We have had some hurdles to overcome but with a lot of prayer and perseverance we made it through the entire 4 weeks of our Summer Semester. We finished all 4 weeks! We started with practically no supervisors and very few tutors but with plenty of students, 20 in fact.

Thoughts from thee Prez

I truly like to write this part of the newsletter because I can say what is in my heart, not just "facts and figures". The Dyslexia Foundation has meant so much to me and my family. I think over the years every member of my family has tutored and several have been a supervisor. I started tutoring when our son, Chris, was 6 (he is now 46) so I have been involved with for 40 years. Once Chris finished the program, 10 years later, he became a tutor and I had become a supervisor. Christina started a few years later as a student so with 2 students in the program, money tight, Cain came and tutored then became the math supervisor. Then when Christina finished the program, she became a tutor then Auditory supervisor. She also worked with Ms. Landrum to help write and edit the books we are currently using. Now we have 3 grandchildren who have been both student and tutor. I guess next will be he great grandkids someday (but not too soon I hope). So, as you can see, we (my whole family) has been involved in the Foundation. We, the Foundation, owe a lot to the people who worked so hard in the past to make the Foundation what it is today. Individuals like

We appreciate all of the angels who took apples from the apple tree and brought in gifts for the foundation. We hope we have given credit to everyone who was so generous. But many things just appeared like magic and we do not know who brought them. We thank you all!

Please Note: We try very hard to make sure we have not left anyone off a list and everyone's name is spelled correctly. In spite of that, crazy keys are still pressed and mistakes are made. Please let us know of any errors and we will try and make the corrections. We never want to leave anyone out!

I looked at Ms. Sue and Ms. Paula and said we are taking this semester on faith. Then very slowly we got 1 tutor then 2 more and so on till we had enough tutors to teach each of the students. We did some unique things for summer. First, we had only 3 groups instead of 6. Mainly because of the lack of supervisors and Rainbow had 3 subjects instead of 5. Lunch was all together not the normal math at one time and Language at another. Even with all these changes Summer went well. We had Language, math, auditory, creative writing, art, computer, and games. We had several students complete books and several more complete letter lessons.

Lord of Life Church is still a fantastic church to work with. Pastor Jim is so accommodating and Debbie, the Church Secretary, is wonderful. Beth the Preschool Director is helpful and Nancy the Music Director is encouraging. It seems that everyone (staff, tutors, most students, parents and church staff) went out of their way to be cooperative.

For fall I hope we will again be at Lord of Life Lutheran Church for our Fall Semester and all of our wonderful supervisors will be back plus some new staff too! We already have 10 students signed up to attend so if you are planning to attend, please get your application in quickly. After surviving this Summer Semester, I know that God does love the Dyslexia Foundation and so do I. I hope you do too!! Come join the Foundation this fall and find some love in your life.

As ever, Karen

Clare Worthington, George Perry, Paula Landrum, Lisa O'Neal, Ms. Vickers, Ms. Bannon, Betty James, Margret Brooks and many others too numerous to name all who gave so much of their time and effort to the Foundation so that the students of today have somewhere to go to get help in Language, Math and to build their self-esteem.

If the Foundation means something to you and your child or children, then get involved. Come tutor and if that is not possible, then send a donation to allow us to keep helping children and their parents for years to come. Think about where you would be and where your child would be without the help of these people and many others too numerous to name that have worked so hard making the Foundation a success and keep its doors open.

Thank you,
Karren, President, Program director, and long-time member.

the parish hall. That meant the Dyslexia Foundation could not meet in the parish hall, so we were like boil weevils just looking for a home. Then by the grace of God and the persistence of Alex Boggan, we found The Lord of Life Lutheran Church. What a blessing this church and its members have been! Pastor Jim, the Lord of Life Minister, is a delightful person and a most Christin man. He has truly been a joy to work with and so has everyone at Lord of Lile. Our 2020 Fall Semester turned out to be a 6-week trial semester so we could get the feel of the new space and how to implement the CDC guidelines to protect our students and staff. It turned out to be a better semester than we thought. So we decided to have a 12 week Spring Semester that turned out great too. Now we felt that we were on a roll and decided to have a Summer Semester as well. Our Semester ended on July 9th with 4 students finishing books and everyone having learned a lot of language, math and auditory. We had 20 students our largest group of students since the virus came on the scene. Now we are getting ready for our Fall Semester 2021. So, get your applications in so we can have an even larger group of students than we had in Summer. Hope to see you in August.

When the English tongue we speak,
Why is "break" not rhymed with

WHICH ONE IS YOU?

"Two a's are good," the small boy cried
His voice was filled with glee.
His father very bluntly asked,
"Why didn't you get three?"

"Mom. I've got the dishes done."
The girl called from the door.
Her mother very calmly said,
"And did you sweep the floor?"

"I've mowed the grass," the tall boy said,
"and put the mower away."
His father asked him with a shrug,
"Did you clean off the clay?"

The children in the house next door
Seem happy and content.
The same things happened over there
But this is how they went:

"Two a's are good," the small boy cried
His voice was filled with glee.
His father proudly said, "That's great!"
"I'm glad you live with me."

"Mom. I've got the dishes done."
The girl called from the door.
Her mother smiled and softly said,
"Each day I love you more."

"I've mowed the grass," the tall boy said,
"and put the mower away."
His father answered with much joy.
"You've made my happy day."

Children deserve encouragement
For task they're asked to do.
If they're to lead a happy life,
So much depends on you!

Confessions of an LD Child

I am a learning disability child.

I number one out of every ten children in the school system.

I look the same as everyone else in my classroom.

I am not blind; yet my eyes do not tell me correctly what I see.

I am not deaf; but my ears often distort the information I hear and I cannot rely on them.

I am not physically handicapped; but my coordination is often so bad that I cannot hit a baseball, ride a bike or write with a pencil.

My parents often think that I am lazy because I cannot produce the work that my I.Q. indicates that I should be able to do.

My teachers call me a behavior problem because I cannot sit still for very long and I am distractible in class.

My classmates think that I am dumb because I cannot read or write or do math problems.

I am a misfit in society, for succeeding depends on academic skill and these are the areas in which I cannot achieve.

I am lonely because I often shy away from those who soon know about my school failure and call me "retard."

I choose younger children to play with so that I do not have to compete with them.

My self-esteem is very low...I am afraid to try new tasks after a while because I have failed so much in the past.

I often withdraw into my little shell or act out my hostility trying to tell everyone how unhappy I am. But not many people understand that that's why I act the way that I do.

My future is dismal...If I do not get help, I am a likely candidate for dropping out of school before I am sixteen.

I am a potential juvenile delinquent because I must be accepted by someone; and if the someone is the wrong crowd, then I will choose to join those who will accept me.

I am destined to a trade school even though my I.Q. may exceed 140 because to get into college you must be able to read and write.

I must spend my lifetime in a job that I dislike and a future that is limited because no one reached me soon enough.

I am the boy next door who stays to himself.

I am the girl in Sunday School class who cried when you asked her to write a verse from the Bible.

I am the Boy Scout who dropped out of the troop when he had to read from the Boy Scout Manual.

I am a learning disability child

Who can I turn to for help?
